Sub Construction of a Students Lodging House (Vidyarthimanas) in Bareabre city - at an estimated cost of Rs 2,20,000

Sir,

With reference to your letter No A2 c 95/44-45 dated 2-8-1947 forwarding for Sanction a copy of the resolution dated 27-6-47 of the city Municipal Council requesting the Government to contribute half the cost of the above work, as is being done in the case of similar Students hostels, I am directed to point out that the proposal of the city Municipal Council to construct the above building was approved by the Govt on the understanding that the entire expenditure would be met by the Bareabre

City Municipal Council. Government consider that it would be desirable for the City Municipal Council to adhere to its original resolution dated

~~In this connection I am to add that it is not clear~~

If however,

whether the Vidyavardhaka in question is meant to handle College Students only or the High School students or both, as well as which case the concerned Heads of Departments will have to be consulted in the first instance

There is no objection to the Municipal Council applying to the Vice Chancellor Mysore University or the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore or both, for a grant under the grant-in-aid rules and the question will be considered on merits when recommendations reach the Government from the Heads of Departments.
